DEVIATION ROAD PINOT
NOIR ADELAIDE HILLS
SOUTHCOTE BLANC DE
NOIRS SPARKLING 2017

There's depth and drive here that is really attractive; the palate holds long with explosive flavors of red apples, emphasized on the finish. Drink now.

DEVIATION ROAD ADELAIDE
HILLS LOFTIA VINTAGE BRUT
SPARKLING 2016

This has grilled hazelnuts, apple pastry and an edge of pears and cool river stones. The palate is attractive in a very sleek and refined way with a neat flush of acidity through the finish. Drink now.

DEVIATION ROAD ADELAIDE
HILLS ALTAIR BRUT ROSÉ 0

An attractive red-fruity edge to the nose with notes of flowers and strawberries, leading to a palate that has approachable red-fruit sweetness and a fluffy, bright and light texture. Drink young.

DEVIATION ROAD SPARKLING
ADELAIDE HILLS BELTANA BLANC DE
BLANCS 2013

A very complex and polished sparkling that spent five years resting on tirage, before disgorgement in 2018. The nose has beautifully clear citrus and peach with hints of bread dough and dried flowers. The palate has a super fine, smoothly resolved feel with quite fleshy peach and lemon flavors, holding pure, fresh and long. Impressive clarity. Really fresh. Drink or age further on cork.

DEVIATION ROAD PINOT NOIR
ADELAIDE HILLS 2017

A wonderful pinot that's alive in the glass with cranberries, citrus, rose petals, boysenberries, pomegranate and pink guava. A very taut palate follows, but with a good degree of balance, provided by the wild strawberries. Lithe and wonderfully drinkable, this is such a crunchy but serious pinot to enjoy. Drink now. Screw cap.

DEVIATION ROAD SHIRAZ
ADELAIDE HILLS MARY'S
RESERVE 2016

So much vibrant blue fruit to this shiraz, including newly picked blueberries and a touch of balsamic, lemons and oranges. Then there's earth, quartz and cinnamon. Full-bodied and very structured but juicy on the palate. The tannins are steely, the acidity long and biting. Drink now or hold. Screw cap.
